"If any man will be my Disciple let him deny himself, take up his Cross and follow Me."

These words were spoken by Him . . . who hung on the Cross as here depicted. Will you, reader, deny yourself, and bear your cross by asking others to deny themselves for Christ's sake?

This Picture Depicts a Devil-Dance in Tibet, and Shows What a Hideous, Degrading Thing a False Religion Can Be. We Who are Born in a Christian Country, Let Us Deny Ourselves to Send the Light of the Gospel in the Dark Places of the Earth.

Band Chat.

The Temple Band has welcomed Bandsman Fontaine, late of Chippenham, and Bandsman W. Dark, late of Crofton I.

Strathroy Band appreciated the visit of Bandsman Ward, of London Ont., and feel grateful for the nice little sum raised for the instrument fund, as a result. The summer Band camp arrived in time for this weekend, and improved the appearance of the Band. Eight instruments have been purchased for the Band during the present Officers' command of the Corps.

The Glasgow Street Band is being led on very ably by Deputy-Bandsmaster Dobney. The men number about thirty-five. They had their Band League Tea on April 14th. A good attendance was recorded; the Bandsman's wives being present.

Bandsman Cunliffe has graduated from the learners class to the Senior Band ranks. He is the fourth member of Brother and Sister Cunliffe's family now playing in the Band.

Windsor Band has lost the services of Bandsman Willmott and Labute, who have gone to Vancouver. Four new Bandsmen have, however, been welcomed.

On Thursday, April 21st, the Detroit, Mich., Band, accompanied by Adjutant Calloun, gave us a musical meeting. A backslider returned to God at the close.—M. R.

Fernie Band is so far advanced that the latest Journals are being played (says Correspondent E. B.). Bandsmaster Calloun has resigned his position on account of his health, but still remains a Bandsman. Bandsmaster George Goodwin (late of the Eastern Province), has taken up the baton.

Wychwood Band has welcomed Bandsman W. Clark, late of Gainsborough, England. Brother Clark, who was converted as a Junior, and has held various offices in the motherland, has taken up monstre bass. Band-Sergt. Attwell has been transferred from medium bass to solo cornet; Bandsman F. White having taken over the former instrument.

Be sure you are right; then go ahead.

Ask a rumour three things: Is it true? Is it kind? Is it necessary to speak of it?

WHERE THE DALAI LAMA REIGNED.

TIBET—THE FORBIDDEN LAND.

THE people of Tibet, where, we hope, The Army will some day be at work, are said to be born traders. Their caravans of yaks or heavily-laden sheep, are interesting features of their snow-covered kingdom. The Tibetan women are partial to brightly-coloured dresses, which are fastened around the waist by red or green sashes. They wear clumsy top boots and an elaborate head-dress. The hair is usually done up in a number of small plaits, which hang down the back and are fastened at the ends with strips of gay coloured cloth. Ornaments of shells and beads and a hat with a white fur brim and red tassel help to complete the picture. They also adorn themselves with great pendant earrings. Tibet has been called the "Forbidden Land," and it is certainly one of the least known countries of the world, strongly shut in, as it is, by its glittering, snow-capped mountains in the clouds, and guarded by a people who are suspicious of strangers, and who have long owned spiritual allegiance to the Dalai Lama, their chief High Priest or Pope. It is certainly a land which is at once a mystery and a fascination.

The Tibetans take more care of their horses than of themselves. The animals are driven into the river with a view to thorough cleansing, but they do not repeat the operation on themselves or their children. The calves and fawns tied to the tent-poles, receive more attention than the children, who, when the weather conditions are congenial, may be seen playing together, entirely unclothed, in course of time the young Tibetan becomes perfectly at home in the saddle, and can take leaps on to the back of running horses, while they are cantering down hill at great speed.

Lhasa, the capital is the only large town. Here is the religious metropolis of Buddhism in the Chinese Empire. The lamas, or Buddhist priests of Lhasa, number 20,000.

The much-talked-of prayer-wheel of the Tibetans is most in evidence at what are termed the "nocturnal devotions" of these interesting folk. At midnight the people within the vicinity of the "golden-tiled temple" are summoned to the rooftops by blows on a drum. The women and children carry bundles of fragrant wood, which is burnt in a small stove on the roof. As the smoke ascends, strange words are chanted and the prayer-wheel is set going by a man who sits cross-legged before it. Countless red paper lamps illuminate the scene, and for long hours strange cries and wild sounds of gongs, cymbals, and bells are heard.

Many Tibetans are fond of music, and it is worthy of note that the chief instruments they possess are drums and cymbals. Is this of happy augury for The Army? Their deeds are few, and one or two garments apiece, a matchlock, sword, flint and steel, a wooden basin, knife, and chopsticks suffice to content them.

A BUSY D.C.

Brief Summary of a Week's Doings.

Brigadier Morahan, the Divisional Commander of the Toronto Division, has done some tall bustling since his appointment to the Division. The following is a "run over" his doings in one week only—as he exact, from April 18th to April 23rd.

On Monday morning, he came to his office at T. H. Q., attended to correspondence, and then went to Weychwood, to find suitable quarters for incoming Officers. In the afternoon he interviewed the officers of three of his Corps, respecting Self-Denial; at night, he conducted an inspection and a census meeting at Rhodes Avenue Corps.

Tuesday morning three more Officers were interviewed; a Council was attended, and a visit made to the Police Court, for the purpose of interfering on behalf of a delinquent, in the afternoon, and at night, the D. C. met the Census Board and conducted an inspection at West Toronto's Callers, letters, etc., at the office were attended to between times.

On Wednesday morning interviews with several Officers, West Toronto Corps was inspected, and a meeting held with a number of Corps Leaders. Another interview, this time, Yorkville and then at night, a wedding at Riverdale.

Thursday morning he rushed through his office, Corps, and telephone calls, and then down upon his knees, and have scattered an entire day. But the D. C. did not come out as calm as he was over he was, in fact, a little perturbed, the opening of work at Government House, and the Divisional Commander under his first time.

The Officers of Toronto Corps, were met in the D. C. on Friday morning, and schemes occupied the D. C. had hardly time for a frugal supper, he had to conduct a meeting at a late hour.

Saturday morning he visited the Divisional office, and conferred matters, about the Corps, being after that into one of half a dozen, and labelled with such words as "B. U. P." or some other, and he was in the D. C. at 1 p.m., the D. C. left for an Army camp, and in view of an Officer, and a Soldier who was in need of help.

On Sunday he was in a city Corps, and on Monday, the office again, and at night, that the "streets" were the happiest.

Railway Difficulties in St.

One of the difficulties met with in St. Pierre, was the elephant. The elephant, says that when he was from Bangkok was sent to an elephant stable on a road on to the track, and he sounded his whistle, and the elephant was sent to his head and he was on the train. So great was the elephant was that he was damaged. The elephant was snapped off.

That was a good day, and the elephant was sent to the street on our journey, and straight at them, and swept away.

Most of the afternoon, I have a bad day, and I have to half give it.

THE WO

Medical Monthly reviewed an article on what Western Canada should be healthy. The writer is sheer nonsense. He would say, "Prevent disease by too strict a regimen of healthy." In dietetics, common sense, and the best iron methods but of caution of principles to be used." He goes on to be asked, "Are there any errors in the matter?" Without dwelling on these matters, it is out that, while the matter of cooking is excellent, matter of vegetables, fruits, sweet things, the practice, especially pork, and fibre is hard and destroys the nutritive value, and often causes constipation. The error is not in the matter of tea, because both are consumed in the error lies both in the too strong, and in the stand a long time on thus spoiling the nature, and so excellent when it is the great error in the habit of long without any pretence at work, which is all too common among young people, if not among workmen.

This is the equally prevalent habit of eating and drinking excessively. It is noteworthy that he will allow his horses to eat and rest, but takes more than twice as much food and bolt out. What a waste of food! There will be in getting the foodstuffs. Is not a man more than a horse?

SOME SAMPLES OF SELF-DENIAL

Captain, to Lieutenant:—"Come on, Lieutenant, let's boost up this Corps, until it goes higher than ever its been before. You watch me." Lieutenant:—"Right; I'll watch and work as well, so will the Soldiers." Chorus:—"We will!"

The Old Lady's Mite.

What About Yours?

A Self-Denial collector was asked what donation to her card brought her the greatest blessing. She replied: "I received the greatest blessing at the close of a meeting held in a Home for the Aged. A dear old soul whispered that she wanted to speak to me. For a minute or two she fumbled about her person, and then leaning against me, as if to hide her hands, she squeezed several coins into my hand."

"Take it and use it for the Lord," she whispered, "it is a tenth of all I have received during the year in the home."

"I felt that my thanks was so small in comparison with the goodness of that modern widow's mite. I could not count the money, my heart was too full of joy. But when I reached the street, I glanced into my palm. There lay just seventy-five cents! 'I can truly say that I received my greatest blessing from that donation.'"

His Name was not There.

How a Niggard was Made Generous.

"Self-Denial Week, sir. Could you help our funds?"

The business man looked across the room at the little Captain who asked the above question—then frowned. But this did not daunt the Captain. She had resolved to get a donation from this man, who had made a name for himself by his ingenuity, and who had never, as yet, given a cent to The Army. And so she appealed.

The man was silent for a minute. It seemed a long minute to the Captain, at whose persistence the man was amazed.

"Let me see your card," he at last said. That one glance worked a miracle. The names of his fellow-townsmen were all there, and his was not. The cure was complete, and the Captain left the office, smiling, and with a five-dollar bill on her card.

He Made a Speech.

And Smashed his Target at a Stroke.

At a house in a fashionable quarter of a certain city a Cadet left a card giving information about Self-Denial week.

A Striking Story.

What Came of an Act of Self-Denial

The Captain was in poor health at the time of the Self-Denial Effort, but she determined to take her share in the work, and the dayning too. And so she and her Lieutenant lived on bread and water for a week.

One day a lady who heard that the Captain was sick, brought her a beautiful basket of grapes, and said: "These are for you, Captain; not for Self-Denial."

"The Captain kindly and almost regretfully refused the fruit, whereupon the lady said, 'Well, remember, you will not get a donation for Self-Denial from me.'"

Eventually the grapes went to a nurse, who divided them among the poorest of her patients. The nurse told them of the Captain's sacrifice, with the result that each patient sent a small donation to the Captain for S.D.

The donor of the grapes heard what the patients did. The incident touched her heart, and soon her name was on the Captain's card for a good donation.

He Got "The Lord's Money."

For many years poor Mrs. Jackson had regularly kept supplied with hard-earned mites and quarters, a little box which stood in a prominent position in her room. The money it contained, was set apart for the service of God, hence the "box was could not be touched, and was locked when she was out."

"Say, Harry, husband, just box, will you?"

A moment later the house was thus: "Mrs. Jackson, And he is certain the money never went out of the box."

A Decision for S.D.

A young man was named with the name of a Self-Denial collector, about whom he had heard a Self-Denial War, he went to the Army and Navy Club to make a donation to S.D.

When he reached the club, he found the door closed. He did not prevent him from going in, where the door was open to his soul. At the same time, he did not prevent him from going in, where the door was open to his soul.

He is now on the list of donors, in other words, a Self-Denial collector.

No Other Way.

The First Step.

A woman, who had been a Self-Denial collector, was asked what donation to her card brought her the greatest blessing. She replied: "I received the greatest blessing at the close of a meeting held in a Home for the Aged. A dear old soul whispered that she wanted to speak to me. For a minute or two she fumbled about her person, and then leaning against me, as if to hide her hands, she squeezed several coins into my hand."

"Take it and use it for the Lord," she whispered, "it is a tenth of all I have received during the year in the home."

But when I reached the street, I glanced into my palm. There lay just seventy-five cents! 'I can truly say that I received my greatest blessing from that donation.'"

Colonel Howell has been in Immigration Work and other Eastern cities for a few days. The rush of the Department is high pressure.

Major Hay and Captain Laidlaw accompanied him, the latter Officer in the town to carry out the same. On Sunday afternoon he occupied the chair at the lecture on the Salvation Army's work.

Colonel Turner is presiding at a festival to be given by the Army in the Central Prison, Hamilton, May 2nd. The Warden is a great believer in The Army's work of social reclamation.

Major Ady recently conducted a service of a Sister Soldier, who converted at the wedding of Captain Combs, (conducted by Captain Combs), to a brother in the field Secretary.

Major Rawling remarked to a friend the other day that it was twenty-four years ago that the Toronto Temple was opened. He remembered quite well, the week following, in which he had seen hundreds of souls were converted. Captain Hall, (now Mrs. Hall), was the first in charge.

Major Hiscock and West, of the College, Toronto, have been appointed to the rank of Lieutenant. Their appointments in the Social Work, are the Hall and Esther Street, respectively.

Major and Mrs. Gosling have been appointed to take charge of the work at East Toronto, on account of the illness of the former.

Major Clark has taken charge of the work at the Salvage Department, Hamilton, Ont.

Major Hall, of Calgary, has been appointed to assist at Bloor Street, Toronto.

Captain and Mrs. Auld, of Wyckwood, have been appointed to take charge of Montreal IV.

Captain Cunningham, of Aurora, has, we regret to say, been bereaved of her father.

Lieut.-Colonel Pugmire recently visited the St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, in Montreal. This institution is the second largest of its kind in the Dominion, and has over five hundred convicts within its walls. The Colonel was graciously received by the Warden, who gave him every desirable freedom. He interviewed a large number of the prisoners. Major Taylor of the Metropole, in Montreal, has been able to secure work for scores of the discharged men.

The Colonel also visited Ottawa, and inspected our Men's Social Institution there, in charge of Ensign Edwards.

THE CHIEF SECRETARY'S EXPERIENCES.

A Chapter of Accidents.

The Chief Secretary, in his journey to the North, is meeting with some of the vicissitudes and adventures that sometimes befall travellers in those regions that are being brought into subjection to the will of man.

Just after pulling out of Loggan, a landslide occurred in the vicinity, and when the train got to Field, a tremendous landslide took place about ten miles west, and the only way the Colonel's train could navigate the difficulty, was by the company building a track around the debris.

After considerable delay, the train pulled out of Field, but during the night, it was again held up. This time, a dynamite train had run into a freight train, telescoping several cars, and smashing two or three to pieces. The mystery is that the dynamite did not explode.

It is marvellous, all things considered, how the Lord looks after the well-being of His people. We must continue to pray for the welfare of the Colonel, and let us also remember dear Mrs. Mapp, who has so cheerfully surrendered her husband to the claims of the War.

At the time of writing the Colonel was again held up, this time, owing to the Skeena River not being navigable.

VISITED BY D. C. AND CAPTAIN TURNER.

Shelburne, N. S.—Major McLean was with us on a recent Monday night. Throughout the interesting revival service the Major claimed the best attention from a well-filled house.

Captain Turner spent the week-end, April 2nd and 3rd, here. The Captain assisted in a musical meeting on the following Monday. The proceeds of this meeting went to help pay off the debt on the Hall chairs. Electric lights have also been put in the Hall. They make a nice improvement.

At the time of writing, Brother Wells is sick.—N. S.

FOUR ENROLLED.

An Anti-Tobacco Parade.

South West Arm.—On April 10th, The General's Birthday, we had a great time. Four comrades took their stand under the flag, and at half past seven were given their hearts to God.

On Monday we also celebrated The General's Birthday. The Anti-Tobacco League boys marched out thirty strong, and a Sale of Work was held. $30.00 was raised for our new Hall fund.—Ensign H. Wiltshire.

Digby, N. S.—Our new D. C. is at ways on the move.

He gave us a very special meeting on Wednesday night, April 10th; enrolled seven recruits and commended seven new Locals. He also gave us an interesting talk on the Doctrines and Principles of The Army. This address was an eye-opener for many.—A Soldier.

Gosport.—On Sunday, April 15th we had Brother and Sister Townsend with us all day. Mrs. Townsend did the meetings in the morning and evening. Her lesson in the morning, on "Ye are the salt of the earth," was a blessing to us all.—J. D.

Let us make a bold stroke for the $50,000 that Canada should raise for the S.D. effort.

THE COMMISSIONER'S

Last Words on Self-Denial. A Splendid Opportunity of Showing our Love for God.

MY dear Comrades and Friends.—Our Annual Week of Self-Denial and Prayer has again come round, and it is my pleasing duty once more to call your attention to it, and to urge upon every reader of the "War Cry" to do his or her best to make it the most successful Effort we have ever had in Canada, Newfoundland, and Bermuda.

The dear Army Mother said, "Self-Denial will prove your love for Christ." How true this is. Was it not with a great gift that our Heavenly Father made salvation possible for us each? He so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, and, with gratitude we should about a big "Thank you," to Him for that Gift. He, in turn, asks a gift of us, of you, of me—not only of ourselves but of our means. He wants some outward expression of our love.

Our Self Denial Campaign affords a splendid opportunity for bringing our gifts and laying them at His dear feet. Among the things needed are—money, goods, possessions. God has richly blessed you in your basket and store. He needs some of it for His service. Love does not hesitate to give gifts that cost something; nay, it counts it all joy so to do.

To spread this glorious work of salvation for body and soul, money is needed, and this appeal gives to one the opportunity to go out and collect it. Then, of course, there is the gift of your time for service. You have given some, can you not manage to give Him more? What a precious gift this is?

Then the gift of your talent more completely and fully than ever you have given them when in His service. The using of one talent enables you to get more talents, but withholding makes that which you have of less use. Then there is the gift of yourself for special service—perhaps for officership, in this or some other land.

Will God not give to you in return? He is always on the giving hand. These days of special soul-examination and prayer, the drawing out of our hearts in love and sympathy for a lost world, the bringing of our possessions for the service of God cannot fail to bring to our hearts some real soul gift from Him.

Will you not, then, at this special Self Denial Campaign, see to it that from every standpoint you make the very most of the privilege, and God your Father will be glorified.

Self-Denial Notes.

By L. C. T.

On the eve of this, our great Annual Week of Self-Denial, we take the liberty of appealing to you, dear friends, asking for your hearty co-operation in this great Campaign.

Your assistance is respectfully requested in this effort. This is The Army's principal means of maintaining and extending the following operations:—

FINAL WORDS ON SELF-DENIAL

My friends, do not think of it as a task, but as a privilege. It is a chance to show your love for God and for your fellow-men. It is a chance to win the crown of life. It is a chance to be part of the great army of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great work of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great glory of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great kingdom of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great church of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great people of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great nation of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great world of God. It is a chance to be a part of the great universe of God. INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD
LONDON

THE GENERAL. HOW HE SPENT HIS 81ST BIRTHDAY.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS FROM
Her Gracious Majesty the Queen, the Dowager Queen of Sweden, Statesmen, Religious Leaders and Others.

FROM the British War
Cry we take the following concerning The General on his 81st birthday:—

As may be supposed, The General was the recipient of a large number of messages of congratulations on the attainment of his Eighty-first Birthday, which he celebrated on Sunday last, April 10th.

These messages, couched in the warmest and most cordial terms, came from the very highest in the land—her Gracious Majesty the Queen sending her felicitations—to the humblest follower in our ranks.

Premiers, Attorneys-General, Governors, Statesmen, our own Territorial Leaders of course, with leaders of religious thought, sociologists, and friends generally, combined to send a sheaf of greetings and good wishes which could not but be gratifying to our beloved Leader, and at the same time a cause of thankfulness to Salvationists everywhere that he has been so long spared to guide and direct the great Movement with which his name will be ever associated.

The General lives in the hearts of his people. His memory is imperishably written on tablets that will endure. We give God praise that he is in such excellent health and spirits, and pray that he may long be spared
to lead us on to conquest and victory.
Long live The General!

By the kindness of our beloved Leader, we are able to supply our readers with a selection from the many messages received, representing practically every country in which our Flag is flying, as well as the various branches of our work which are in operation.

Her Majesty the Queen telegraphed as follows:—

Sandringham, 5.48 p.m.

GENERAL BOOTH.

I wish you every happiness and blessing on your 81st birthday, and may God long preserve you to carry on your good and valuable work in His service.

ALEXANDRA.

To this gracious message The General dispatched the following reply:—

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

10.4.1910.

I thank your Majesty for your kind congratulations on the occasion of my Birthday and hope to continue the work God has given me to do and in which I know your Majesty feels such kindly and sympathetic interest.

WILLIAM BOOTH.

The Dowager Queen of Sweden sent the following warm-hearted greeting:
Having just heard that you celebrated your 81st Birthday yesterday,

I send my warmest wishes, thanking God for the great work He has enabled you to do, especially in Sweden.

The Premier of Manitoba (the Hon.
Redmond P. Roblin and the Atorney-General (the Hon. Colin H.
Campbell) sent the following:—

"Manitoba.

"Convey sincere congratulations to General Booth, with every good wish for future happiness and usefulness."

From Commander Eva Booth the following touching and filial message was received:—

"New York.

"Send you every blessing. My love, service, and devotion for time and eternity."

And from Commissioner Lucy
Booth-Hellberg:—

"Live on. Eternal Love."

Representing the Department of the West, Commissioner Estlin says:—

"Chicago.

"Your American Western troops
send you heartiest Birthday greetings. We honour and love you for your matchless labour, example, and achievements."

Assurances of faithfulness to the Flag on the part of The Generals' Indian and Ceylon troops are sent by Commissioner and Mrs. Booth-Tucker:—

"Sindia.

"Assure The General that he can rely on us as never before to stand by him in love and loyalty to the end. The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms; and He shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them."

Commissioner Coombs, commanding the Land of the Maple Leaf, who is in the West, telegraphs:—

"Winnipeg.

"We greet you with warmest love,
true loyalty, and unchanging fidelity."

Congratulatory messages were received from Australia, Japan, Korea, from every Continental capital, and other centres.

In addition The General received congratulations from a very large number of personal friends. It would,
of course, be impossible for us to publish a tenth of these, so numerous are they.

The London Daily "Mail," which published a message from our grand old Leader, says:—

"With enthusiasm unquenchable,
General Booth spent the day in making plans for the future. Despite the burden of years and his limited sight, the work he does in his home

THE WEEK-END'S DESPATCHES

THIS IS THE SELF-DENIAL WEEK.

Let Every Corps be Determined to Smash a Target.

EVANGELISTS ASSIST.

Our week-end meetings at Fernie were good, and well attended. On Saturday night we had with us the Revs. Mr. Lewtas and Reed, two evangelists who are conducting special meetings in town. Mr. Lewtas gave us a treat in the shape of a beautifully illustrated lecture on the Holy Land, and incidents in the life of Christ, showing about fifty pictures, which were very interesting.

On Sunday, the meetings were conducted by the members of the Band, and we had good times. The Bandmaster evidently believes in that chorus which says, "Everybody has a work to do in the great salvation war," for every Bandman was allotted some duty, which, however, is a pleasure if done in the right spirit.

At night the band rendered one of the latest selections, namely, "The Judgment."—E. B.

BROTHER BRETT, OF ROSSLAND, B. C.

Brother Arthur Brett, to whom we bade good-bye, has passed away. He went on a visit to his parents, whom he had not seen for some time, with a view of taking up farming. He arrived at his home on Thursday, was suddenly stricken down, and died on the following Sunday. He was unconscious for twelve hours, but shortly before passing away, he raised his hand and cried, "Faith, faith."

Our comrade leaves a sorrowing wife and two children. We pray that God may comfort and strengthen them just now.

Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms!
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to His arms.

THE GIRLS CAME AT LAST.

Barrie.—On Sunday afternoon, April 24th, Brother John Bigwind, an Indian Soldier of the Rama Reserve, sang and spoke in his broken English.

For a long while in the night meeting no one would yield. At last, Brother MacDonald told the unconverted that they must take the responsibility on themselves, for he would not close the meeting while a sinner remained in the Hall. The meeting was continued, until there were only two young girls left, and they both came to the mercy seat.—G. M.

Edmonton, Alta.—Two persons holiness on Sunday morning, April 24th. A backslider returned on Sunday afternoon, and one soul found salvation at night. Officers, Bandmen and Soldiers are all in for God and souls.—J. N. P.

Here Bay.—We have been favoured with a visit from Lieut. Colonel Rees, who held a meeting here on Thursday, April 7th. His address was very helpful and inspiring.—Lieut. Jones.

A GOOD SUNDAY.

And a Special Demonstration.

We had a splendid day on Sunday, April 24th, at Montreal II. The Bandmen, especially, worked like Trojans.

At night we threw the meeting open for anyone, saved or unsaved, to choose their favourite song, and then it was sung. We had a very blessed time, and at the close, one man volunteered for Salvation.

We are shortly holding another enrolment of Soldiers.

The following is from the "Montreal Witness," describing a special "Go" we held last week:—

"What was declared to be, by those who attended, one of the most impressive services ever held by the Salvation Army in this city, was given to a crowded congregation at the Point St. Charles (Cade) last night. The service was entitled, 'The Child, and What He May Become,' and consisted of fifteen scenes, (taken from real life), representing two 'life stories,' and from the first scene (showing an innocent babe asleep in its cot), right through the development of the two lives, the attention was held spellbound. At the close, the audience, visibly impressed, went quietly out and home to think.

"The service was accompanied by appropriate singing and Bible readings. Captain Turner has arranged to have this service repeated next Thursday night."

YOUR SELF-DENIAL WILL MAKE FOR THE EXTENSION OF GOD'S KINGDOM ON EARTH.

A BATTLE AND A SURRENDER.

Regina.—On Sunday night, four souls came out for salvation, and one for sanctification. Among the number was a young man who had been a constant attendant at our meetings for several months. He was made a special subject of prayer, but for a long time he resisted God's Spirit. On Friday night, the burden of his sins pressed so heavily upon him that sleep was impossible. Conviction followed him until Sunday, when he yielded to God, and is now triumphing over all his evil habits, and rejoicing in his Saviour. He came out on Tuesday night with another comrade for holiness.

We are going forward hopefully in our Self-Denial Effort.—Hope.

Riverdale.—Ensign and Mrs. Burton were in charge of the meetings on Sunday, April 24th.

The Band, under Captain Myers, went to East Toronto for the afternoon and night meeting. At night two young women sought salvation. Sister Mrs. Cliffe has returned from the Old Land, and brought another sister Soldier with her. And so the ranks are increasing.

A WEDDING AT CALGARY.

A very pleasant event took place in The Salvation Army auditorium last night, when Bandman A. Jones, of Vancouver was united in marriage to Staff-Captain Jessie Lowrey, Matron of The Salvation Army Hospital in this city.

The ceremony was performed by Staff-Captain Coombs in the presence of a large audience. Mrs. Major Creighton acted as matron of honour to the bride, while Major Creighton assisted the groom. The Silver Band was in attendance, and rendered several choice selections.

After the ceremony, the bridal party and invited guests repaired to the home of Staff-Capt. Coombs where a beautiful wedding supper had been prepared, after which the happy couple left for Vancouver, their future home.

A CORPS OF REAL FIGHTERS.

They Enjoy Visit From Officers.

The devil has still to reckon with the little band of Soldiers of Dundas Corps. Lieutenant Chispmptin evidently abhors stagnation, and there are very evident signs of a good work being done.

Sunday, April 3rd, was a day of special blessings. We had with us Mrs. Major Green, Adjutant Cummins and Captain Walter. The holiness meeting was a feast of good things. The Adjutant's breezy talk in the afternoon, on the "Great North-West" was much enjoyed, as was also his powerful address at night. One soul knelt at the mercy seat.—J.

Inverness, C. B.—We had a visit from our worthy D. C. Major McLean, last Thursday, also Captain

MONTREAL TROUBLE AND GOOD RESULTS.

The Montreal Corps was very warmly received on Monday, April 18th, when a programme was given at the East-End Corps.

This Brigade, which has been organised only about six months, is under the direction of Sergeant (Captain) Turner, and is making progress, and at the moment has about twenty members.

The programme consisted of items which have come to be regarded as Army classics. The first piece, however, was "The Marching Song," which was rendered with fine dash and spirit, and the "Ocean and the Shore," entitled, "Oh, how we love the guilty sinner," was also very appreciated. On the basis of the recitation of "How the Lord formed the Band," brought down.

The concluding song by the sisters, "Eternal Christ, I Love Thee," the late Bandmaster Fry, who sang with real fervour, and the impression and fitting to the invitation, which was given by Staff-Captain Bloss, the Bandmaster, who also presided at the gathering.

Many were the pleasing and inspiring remarks made by the officers and outside musicians who were in attendance, and great interest was made for a return visit to the near future.—Songster, C.

CHEERING THE SAIL.

Sunday was a good day for the march, so that they could go to the White House to give thanks to Mrs. Adby a welcome home to Bermuda, and also to the Staff-Captain Barr, who was sick. Then they went to the Street, to hold an open-air meeting of a comrade who has been invalid for a long time. The open-air was also held on the Street, before the home of the Israel, whose wife is ill.

God was very near all day, and closed our meeting with the singing of salvation.

Our Band and Songsters are proving, under the leadership of Bandmaster Hockaday, and Mrs. Mercer are the best of all.

A LINE OF PENITENTS.

Moscow Harbour Army Corps held a night the penitent, from the night with penitents. On Monday we held a Soldier's and Songsters' meeting. The power of the penitent was all present.

The next night, a woman came to express what the penitent was, and the glory like that, in the night, in my eyes and blood, and I could not see anything but the penitent.

Thirteen souls, from the penitent-form at Bay, and the night the past week. Captain and Lieutenant Hockaday, and Lieutenant Hockaday.

CONVERTED CLOWN.

On Thursday, Sister was followed. On Saturday, on the market square, was us Envoys Tom Baker, a circus clown. He was in his clown's clothes and gave much attention from the crowd in the Citadel on Darling St. Two hundred persons gathered for his adventures prior to his performance. Some of his anecdotes were very pathetic. On the following morning a meeting was held on the Band on Colborne Street, the soldiers on Rathbone Street, and the Envoys spoke at the meeting on the contrast in the life now used for God, and his life in the devil's service. In the evening, the Envoys gave the night of his conversion. At night Mrs. Sly, the Sergeant-Major of the Legion of Mercy, and Comrade Connie Sly farewelled Sister Turner was welcomed in the Old Land. Envoys Baker and Turner recounted some wonderful tales of conversion. One soul found salvation.

CHANCELLOR AT CORNWALL.

Some Good Results.

Staff-Captain Bloss visited Cornwall on Saturday and Sunday, April 19th and 20th. On Saturday night, the Band, clad in new uniforms, gave a musical festival.

The fall was visited by the Chancellor and Captain Smith early on Sunday morning.

The meetings throughout the day, though affected by stormy weather, were well attended and profitable to all. Three persons sought holiness, and one, holiness.

A memorial service conducted by Staff-Captain Smith on the previous Sunday was very impressive. Five souls found salvation.—S. S.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.

Meeting On Historic Spot.

Montreal.—The 26th Anniversary of the Corps was held on Easter Sunday. One of the features of the day was the afternoon open-air meeting held on the spot where the first open-air meeting was held. Representative speakers spoke at night, referring to the starting of The Army's work in this town.

Captain Royce, of Penitents conducted these meetings. His visit was much enjoyed. Band-Sergeant Kempster of Galt, greatly assisted the night with the euphonium.

A Birthday Party was held on Monday night. Refreshments were served by the Sisters, and a good programme was given. The proceeds of the evening clearing a debt incurred during the winter.

Montreal and Galt was a great success, and will be long remembered in Galt. Sergeant-Major Ward, of London, was with us. Nine open-air meetings were held, with large crowds of listening people. The Hall was crowded all night. We closed with a thanksgiving service, but believing that the work was done. Income $23.

Montreal.—Envoys Baker and Turner are getting tired up for the night, and full of officers are now—S.

MONTREAL SONGS
GOOD IMPRESSION

The Montreal songs were very warmly received. On Saturday, April 18th, the programme was given at the East-End Corps.

This Brigade, which has been organized only about six months, under the direction of Captain (Captain) Tull, was in progress, and at the time of the programme, the members of the East-End Corps.

The concluding song by the members, "Eternal Christ of Love," the late Bandmaster Fry, who sung with real fervor, made a deep impression, and fittingly closed the invitation, which was given by Staff-Captain Bloss, the Band-Chancellor, who ably presided at the gathering.

CHEERING THE SICK

Sunday was a good day for the soldiers, so that they could go to the White House to give a gift to Mrs. Adby a welcome home from Bermuda, and also to cheer the Staff-Captain Barr, who has been sick. Then they went to the Street, to hold an open-air meeting of a comrade who had been invalid for a long time. The open-air was also held on the Street, before the home of Israel, whose wife is ill.

A LINE OF PENITENTS

Muscel Harbour, Acadia, held the penitent form last night with penitents. On Monday we held a Soldiers and Sailors meeting. The power of the penitent form is all present.

Thirteen souls have been in penitent-form at Bay St. Lawrence in the past week. Cadets and Lieutenants Hillier, and others, us—Lieutenant Batten.

Dancing Dervishes in Egypt.

A Religious ceremony that is degrading and harmful. It is our duty as Christians, to enable these people to rejoice in the Lord. Will you deny yourself this week for their sakes, and Christ's?

SELF-DENIAL NOTES.

The Salvation Army has a network of machinery in operation. Having Officers stationed in all parts of Canada, we are in a splendid position to deal with poor unfortunates.

During the year, a large number of first offenders have been handed to us on what we might call "suspended sentence" from various police courts.

Missing Friends.

Out of 537 cases enquired for in one year, 150 were found.

For the benefit of the general public, we herewith submit the condensed opinions of a number of the leading public men throughout the Dominion.

His Excellency Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada.

"There are many Canadian homes better and happier for the life work of General Booth."

Sir Edward Morris, Premier of Newfoundland.

"Your work is the very best investment of all the powers you possess. It is putting money in a bank that will never fail."

Lieut. Governor Fraser, Nova Scotia.

"I sympathize with The Salvation Army, because of the services they have rendered in Nova Scotia."

Premier Whitney, Ontario.

"The results of The Army have commended themselves to me, and by the results I am satisfied."

Judge Forbes, St. John, N. B.

"I believe many have been saved from watery graves, because of the Rescue Work of The Salvation Army."

Premier McBride, British Columbia.

"No man living to-day has done so much to succour and uplift the unfortunate, as General Booth."

Hon. Frank Oliver Minister of the Interior.

"Men think better of each other, and the world is a better place to live in, because of the life work of General Booth."

Hon. A. Weir, Montreal, P. Q.

"The methods of The Salvation Army have brought light to many souls weighed down with misery."

Hon. Mr. Cushing, Alberta.

"The greatest Army we have in God's battle to-day."

N. W. Rowell, K. C., Chairman, Layman's Missionary Movement.

"We welcome the hearty and sympathetic cooperation of The Army, as one of the most individual factors in Canada."

We mentioned in our Note last week, that Canadian raised $40,000 in connection with the Self-Denial Week last year. This year it would easily equal the last year, not only the amount raised, but the number of men who contributed.

Let every man, woman, and child, who is able to give, give their assistance, and be given, whether the contribution is small or great, in order to assist in bringing this about.

Do not withhold your contribution because nobody happens to call upon you, or because of the smallness of the sum. If you are overlooked in general canvasses, send your contribution to the nearest Provincial or Divisional Headquarters, or mail the same direct to Headquarters, Toronto.

THE GENERAL

at Hadley Woods is amazing. Two secretaries have to work all day long to keep pace with his output of letters and messages.

"After dictating messages until 11 p.m. on Saturday, he rose on his birthday morning before 8 o'clock, and, after a cup of tea and a piece of toast, rang for one of his secretaries. In response to a request from "The Daily Mail" he was setting out his hopes and ambitions for the coming year, when he was interrupted by his grandchildren, who romped round him and won a sunny smile from the grey-haired veteran, who still stands quite erect when he leaves his easy chair.

Looking Ahead.

"How can I expect to realise all the cumulative longings of the years already spent?" A shadow crossed the old man's face as he dictated these words. Then his plans surged quick into his mind. They were set down thus:

"1.—The abolition of vagrancy and the diminution of drunkenness by compulsory detention of vagrants and drunkards, with proportionate efforts for their reclamation.

"2.—The complete reformation of our criminal system, the whole tenor of which should be in direction of reformation and prevention as well as punishment.

"3.—A wide application of our plans for settling the people on the land both at home and abroad.

"4.—A national land system, by which the worthy unemployed can emigrate to different parts of the Empire.

"5.—To make impossible the transportation of innocent and ignorant girls and women from one country to another for improper purposes.

"6.—To see The Salvation Army in both its spiritual and social efforts, operating among the populations of all the great cities and in every corner of the earth."

May every good wish extended to our General, be abundantly realised. Read his Self-Denial message, and act accordingly.

STRENGTHENING THE FORCES.

St. Catharines.—Major Green visited the Corps on Thursday, April 21st. His words and earnest appeals were heard with pleasure by a good crowd.

A String Band has been formed and is proving a good help in the meetings. There are also six Corporals, whose usefulness is very apparent to the stranger.

Several recruits are soon to be enrolled. Captain and Mrs. Sharp are ever ready to increase our ranks.

NEW OFFICERS.

Lead Backsliders Home.

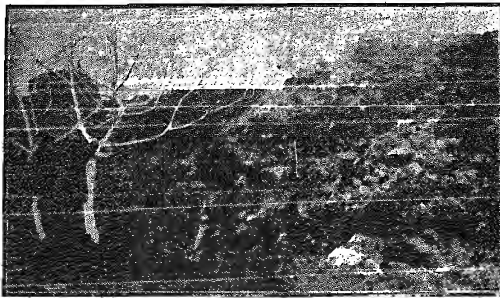

Cananogue.—Corporal Lawson and Lieutenant Pearce have been welcomed. Already they have led three backsliders to God. The Captain's assistance with the recruit is very timely. Our Band feels "good" over the matter.

The meetings of last week were well attended—47 Officers.

St. John Ill. N. B.—Forty-five persons have sought salvation and sanctification in the last eight days.

Renewed Activity of the Giant Volcano.

Some Interesting Facts Concerning Mount Etna.

Italian Sentry Watching the Face of the Advancing Lava Stream.

On March 23rd, a series of shocks, gradually increasing in force, was the first warning that the inhabitants of the surrounding towns and villages received of the eruption of Mount Etna. Later on smoke, lava, and small stones began to belch forth from four craters, the lava invading the cultivated lands and descending at the rate of a yard every minute. Signo, the director of the observatory, telegraphed from Nicolosi, saying that a great stream over 1,500 feet wide was moving at 60 feet an hour. Large quantities of fiery scoriae were thrown up, accompanied by tremendous explosions and rumbling. The Prefect of Catania and Cardinal Nava, the archbishop, went to Nicolosi and Belpasso to encourage the inhabitants, which has been so seriously threatened, was rebuilt after the eruption and earthquake of 1693, and has about ten thousand inhabitants.

The little villages of Borello and Nicolosi, which are suburbs of Belpasso, have so far escaped any serious injury, except to the vineyards, but Mount Etna still continues at the time of writing, in violent eruption, and the streams of lava are steadily advancing down the slopes of the great volcano.

The observatory to the north of the main crater has been abandoned, owing to the risk of steam cutting off the observatory altogether. Thousands of acres of fertile vineyards have been devastated, and peasant owners have been selling their land to speculators at absurd prices, thinking a few coins better than utter ruin, while others, walling and wringing their hands, loudly beseech the Madonna to save their homes and fields. Tourists and others, to the number of nearly ten thousand, have lately visited the scene and climbed about near the crater.

Major-General Pascale, a commander of the troops at Catania, which is twenty miles from the summit, has thoroughly inspected the district, and charitable people went about with him comforting the men and women, who are grief-stricken at the sight of their ruined property.

The veil of St. Anna, Catania's most sacred treasure, is to be taken up the mountain by the archbishop, in the hope of arresting the lava's deadly progress, while various sacred images are to be taken in procession for the same purpose. Many peasants refuse to leave the vicinity of their threatened land; they will neither eat nor drink, and the pleadings of their friends are unheeded, till they drop exhausted with heat and privation. Other peasants, whose property is not actually threatened, behave matters very calmly, and in the villages, card-playing and wine-drinking occupy the time of most of the men, who are having a general holiday, and welcome an excuse for idleness.

The temperature of the surface lava has been taken and certified by

Mr. Frank Perret, the American Volcanologist, who nearly lost his life during the eruption of Vesuvius four years ago, and he has drawn attention to the extraordinary way in which the erupted lava retains its heat, for lava erupted twenty-eight years ago, is still hot. Deposits from the 1906 eruption, which had a temperature of 700 degrees Fahr. when erupted, had, last summer, only cooled to 150 degrees Fahr. The vast main crater of Etna has not been active as it was two years ago. The latest reports show that the streams have changed their direction towards Monte Rinazze and Monte Faggi.

Dovercourt's Sale of Work.

Opened by Wife of Lieut. Governor Gibson—a Festive Two Days.

"I have much pleasure in declaring this Sale of Work open." With these words, Mrs. Gibson, wife of the Lieut. Governor of Ontario, opened a Sale of Work in the Dovercourt Hall, on Thursday afternoon, April 21st. Brigadier Morhen led the preliminaries, in which Mrs. Colonel Mapp took part. Mrs. Lieut. Colonel Turner, Mrs. Lieut. Colonel Souhall, and the wives of other Staff Officers were also on the platform.

The Hall presented a gay appearance. Tri-coloured bunting, palms and flags had transformed the interior from a gay meeting place to a bright bazaar of industry, brought about by the presence of a little food, high with goods—and they were "good" goods, for the wholesome sweet-made aware by a Sister, who had the joy of seeing some of her handwork being purchased "for Susie or Sammy." Sewing classes have been running at full speed for about ten weeks—the results were on view that afternoon.

Just by the door was a stall with an attractive display of books. A closer look and one discovered the "Trade" stall, where Army publications were being retailed with a deserving boost. In the centre of the Hall stood a large four-sided stall, heaped with everything from a cotton handkerchief to a complete outfit for the baby. The craft of the needle was fully displayed by some of the daintiest of articles. On the left was a candy stall, which was making a record for customers. And no wonder for the wholesome sweet-stuffs were made by the Brother and his wife, who were in charge of the stall.

Across the Hall was another stall, with pies, cakes, jellies and sandwiches, enough to make the eyes of any youngster fairly dance.

In a small room, a museum was conducted by the Young People of the Corps. There one could see curios from more countries than one has fingers—a fork that went through the Crimean War, clogs from Holland, a root from the Plains of Abraham, and coral from a South African sea.

The Sale, which lasted for two days, was a well-conducted affair, and gave credit to Adjutant and Mrs. Hahlik and their workers. The proceeds were in aid of the new building fund.

HAPPENINGS AT THE TEMPLE.

The Local Officers at the Temple were commissioned on Sunday afternoon, April 21st. Bandmaster Nelson, from Belfast, and Bandsman Dark and Fouracre were also welcomed. We were pleased to have with us, Brother Matthews, an old Temple Bandsman, who is re-visiting Toronto. At night a splendid crowd attended the meeting. Major Findlay gave a stirring address. Five souls knelt at the mercy seat.

On Monday, a special meeting of the Songsters was held, and it was announced that Band-Sergeant Nicol would be their Leader.

Colonel Narami was recently asked by a villager in the Colasaram Division of South India, to demolish a shrine which he had built to house an idol. It had cost him fourteen rupees—a large sum for a Native.

Having learned, through the teaching of our people, that idols of wood and stone could not save his soul, he determined to have the idol and shrine destroyed. This was done by the Colonel, in the presence of a large crowd of people. As evidence that superstition dies hard, the Colonel remarks that the old man, although glad to be rid of his former

"god," was afraid either to approach while the work of demolition was going on, or to help in it.

Professor Yamamura reports the following incident:

A woman who had been suffering with rheumatism for twenty years, determined to commit suicide, and,

in attempting to do so, cut her throat with a sword. The doctor who subsequently attended her, gave her a copy of the "War Cry" with the remark, "This is the medicine to cure your sickness."

the "Cry" brought her much comfort,</

A Pull on the Life-Line.

A Stirring Incident of the Sea.

I was reading a thrilling story the other day—the story of a wreck off the coast of England. A great storm had raged all day, and toward sunset the inhabitants of a certain little fishing village heard the ominous sounds of distress from a vessel which had run ashore on that rocky coast. From one end of the village to the other, men and women flocked to the beach, to see where the vessel lay.

There she was, just out beyond those angry, tumultuous billows, held fast on the rocks! Her mast broken, the great sea breaking over her and beating her to pieces! Who would go to the rescue?

The strong men gathered together and consulted. Not even a life-boat could live on such a sea, and it were folly to think of attempting those billows by mere physical force. So they held back and waited, until there came running from the village a young man, famous for his physical strength. "Has no one ventured to help those poor souls?" he shouted, for the wind was deafening. "Where's the boat?"

"She cannot live, sir," the fisherman replied; "not a man of us could carry her over such a sea!"

It was true. The young athlete saw that it was so, and calling for the life-line, he tied it round his own waist, while the men stood round watching him in silence.

"You cannot do it, sir," they finally burst out; "give it up, for it will only be one more soul the sea will get this night."

He smiled back in answer. "Let out the line as I swim, and keep letting it out as long as you feel a pull on it. If the pull should cease, wait ten minutes, and if, at the end of that time, I do not pull again, draw me in." Then, with a rush and a plunge, he was gone. The great sea had swallowed him, just for a moment. And then, up above those billows they saw him striking out with the billows. Then a great wave engulfed him, and the line slackened.

"Time it," shouted the men—Three, four, six minutes passed, and there was no pull on the life-line. "Draw him in," shouted one man. "Wait," said the captain of the life-saving station, "he gave us ten minutes, and they are not up yet."

Another minute passed, and their anxiety deepened. The men's hearts failing, and the women's eyes wet with tears. Then a great shout ran along the shore. The line began to play out again! Out and out it ran, and now, far out over those billows, the watchers could dimly discern the swimmer drawing nearer and nearer to the ill-fated ship. Then they saw him reach it and climb the side of the vessel, and now they knew that between that ship and the shore was the saving stretch of the life-line, and that a way of escape had been made for all those despairing souls.

What was it that caused such great anxiety to those people on the shore? Why, there was no pull on the life-line, and they knew that "no pull" meant the loss of that brave young man, and untold agony and distress to those on board of the sinking vessel.

"He Shall Have the Heavens for His Inheritance."—But the Lord Requires Your Help.

It would be well for us to think of this in connection with our Self-Deaf work. We too often, nowadays, hear the complaint that there is too much demand upon our sympathy. A pull on the life-line? Too strong a pull on the life-line? Too much evidence that those men and women who have given up their lives to rescue the perishing, are going ahead, battling with the great billows of sin, and want and suffering, and bringing close to needy souls the Divine source of life and comfort? Shame, that we should ever complain of that pull, and by our withdrawal of gifts, and our failures to meet the existing emergencies, even limit the pull on the life-line.—Selected.

JAILED FOR DRUNKENNESS AND THEN FOR CHRIST.

Fernie, B. C.—Five persons sought salvation in a recent Sunday night meeting. Our Corps' roll has grown considerably, by reason of transfers from other Corps. Forty on the march, is a common sight.

On Sunday afternoon, April 3rd, Brother Barr from Scotland, related a little of his Army experience. He told of the days when he was put in prison for drunkenness, and afterwards for Christ's sake. He said his days behind the bars for the Master, were the happiest he ever spent.—E. D.

What about your Corps? A little over your target would help Canada, Newfoundland and Bermuda to reach $50,000.

A HALLELUJAH WEDDING

Brigadier Adby, our Divisional Commander, assisted by Staff-Captain Barr, conducted a Hallelujah Wedding in our Citadel, at Moncton, on April 26th. A splendid crowd was present.

After a short musical programme, including a solo by the Brigadier, a mandolin solo, and wedding bells by Ensign Urquhart, the ceremony was performed. Brother and Sister Morgan and Soldiers then adjourned to the Y. P. Hall, where a wedding supper was served.

A REAL WARFARE, THIS.

Knee-drill on Easter Sunday at Norman's Cove, was held at 5 a.m. A march followed.

Twenty souls have recently sought holiness.

On Sunday last, six persons sought salvation, one being an ex-military man. Two recruits were enrolled.

Our Easter Crys went like wild fire.—E. J. G.

Chesley, Ont.—We have enrolled two soldiers. One soul sought salvation on April 17th. We are sorry to report, however, that several of our comrades have left for other Corps. Bandman J. Lomax having gone to Winton; Bandman H. Lottak, to Edmonton; Bandman Karl H. Hutton, to Hoegeln; and Brother Hartke, to Spokane, Wash.

"ARMY" WOMEN

Women who are in the Army are not only doing the very best work in the world," says a "Canadian Journal." "They are sacrificing their own lives for the sake of the country, and their work is of the highest importance. They are well spent, that is, they are doing the best they can, and are unprotected, in the sense that they are not in the Army, but in the service of the country."

"Book-keeper, milliner, factory girl, or whatever she may be, she has her own interests, her own lives and her own humanity, and she is to be treated as a human being, not as a machine. Her full worth, and her full contribution to her social work, are to be recognized."

"There, too, she must be available to the call of the sick at any hour of the night. There are countless instances in which women and children are the slaves, that a doctor has to go for fear of a policeman, with themselves in the hands of the doctor, to give evidence against the hands or fathers. But the doctor is not to be denied from the doctor's office, and the doctor is to be denied from the doctor's office."

"Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance. But her heart is in the work, and her whole life is devoted to the work. Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance."

"Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance. But her heart is in the work, and her whole life is devoted to the work. Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance."

"Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance. But her heart is in the work, and her whole life is devoted to the work. Her work is of the highest importance, and her work is of the highest importance."

Salvation Songs

Holiness.

Tunes.—I will follow Thee, my Saviour, 144: Loved ones gone before, 146.

1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
All to leave and follow Thee;
Though I be despised, forsaken,
Thou from hence my all shalt be.

Chorus.

I will follow Thee, my Saviour.

Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought or hoped or known;
Yet how rich is my condition!
God and Heaven are still my own.

And while Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might;
Foes may hate, and friends may shun
me,
Show Thy face and all is bright.

Tunes.—Ten thousand, thousand souls, 60; Oh, 'twas love, B. J.,
171; Song Book, No. 219.

2 God loved the world of sinners lost
And ruined by the Fall!
Salvation full at highest cost,
He offers free to all.

Chorus.

Oh, 'twas love, 'twas wondrous love!

'E'en now by faith, I claim Him mine,
The risen Son of God;
Redemption by His death, I find,
And cleansing through the flood.

Love brings the glorious fullness in,
And to His saints makes known,
The blessed rest from labored sin,
Through faith in Christ alone.

Salvation.

Tune.—Happy Song.

3 We are marching on
With shield and banner bright;
We will work for God
And battle for the right;
We will praise His name,
Rejoicing in His might;
And we'll work till Jesus calls.

Chorus.

Then awake, then awake,
Happy song, happy song,
Shout for joy, shout for joy,
As we gladly march along.
We are marching onward, etc.

In the open air
Our Army we prepare,
As we rally round
Our blessed standard there;
And the Saviour's Cross
We will gladly learn to bear.
While we work till Jesus calls.

Tunes.—He leadeth me, S.M.L., 344;
Oh, wash me now, 12; Song
Book, No. 699.

4 He leadeth me! Oh, blessed thought!
Oh, words with Heavenly comfort
fraught!
What 'er I do, where'er I be—
Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me!

Chorus.

He leadeth me! He leadeth me!
By His own hand He leadeth me;
His faithful follower I will be,
For by His hand He leadeth me.

Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers
bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea—
Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me!

Lord, I would clasp Thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur or repine—
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since 'tis Thy God that leadeth me.

Free and Easy.

Tunes.—We're travelling home, 128;
Behold, behold the Lamb, 122;
Song Book, No. 79.

5 We're travelling home to Heaven
above,
Will you go?
